Arthrex Training Center

in the Isar Medical Center Munich

Arthrex develops and promotes minimally invasive operation techniques in orthopedics and traumatology, and it is one of the world's leading manufacturers of implants and medical technology devices, with roots right here in Munich.

Arthrex operates the most up-to-date training lab of its kind in the Isar Medical Center Munich: the ArthroLab.

For groups or one-on-one training:

12 fully equipped arthroscopy workstations allow people to practice all of the operation techniques
